INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM

The Intensive English Program is a short term program intended for a group or groups of students with a non-English-medium background who desire to gain increased proficiency in the English language. Although its design is flexible, depending on the needs of the students, typically the course is based on skills: Reading-Speaking with Grammar, Speaking-Listening with Pronunciation, and Reading-Writing with Grammar. In most class sessions, students are engaged into communicative situation where they must negotiate messages among themselves. The teacher steers these interactions.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

By the end of the program,

1. learners will have been immersed in many English language communicative situations in and out of the classroom.
2. learners will have cultivated communicative skills that enable them to handle the various phases of communicative situations.

3. learners will be able to demonstrate positive attitude towards using English.
